Disclaimers

General Disclaimer

Thank you for this opportunity to place insurance on your behalf.

BEFORE PROCEEDING WITH OUR PROPOSAL, IT IS ESSENTIAL THAT YOU REVIEW AND UNDERSTAND THIS EXPLANATION OF THE PROPOSAL'S PURPOSE AND EFFECT.

Generally, a Proposal is intended to provide an overview of an insurance program and touch on some, but not all, of the individual policy terms and conditions for informational purposes only. The Proposal does not provide a comprehensive explanation of any insurance policy as a whole and does not include all applicable policy terms and conditions. In all cases, the policy as issued and subsequently endorsed supersedes any statement made herein.

We strongly recommend that you review all policies from “cover to cover” when they are received, again as endorsements are received, and call us immediately if you have any questions or concerns. The actual policy wording will dictate the rights and duties of the parties to the insurance contract and must be reviewed to avoid any misunderstanding as to coverage provided by the policy in question. Be aware that the interpretation of contracts, including insurance policies, is a question of law. We, as insurance agents, can offer an interpretation of policy language as we understand it but cannot provide legal advice. Questions about the legal effect of any policy terms or conditions should be referred to your attorney.

Finally, we want to remind you that you provided Marsh McLennan Agency with information about your organization and its exposures including, but not limited to, description of your business, business locations, projected sales and income, other financial information, number of employees, property values, owned automobiles, driver license information, etc. We have forwarded this information to the insurers on your behalf. The insurers have relied on this information in determining the nature of coverage offered and developing premium to be charged. You must make us aware immediately if any material information provided by you for underwriting purposes is incorrect or has otherwise changed. Actual exposures in existence during or at the end of the policy term may determine the actual final premium. Again, the insurance contract will prevail.

Trade Sanctions Compliance

Marsh McLennan Agency is unable to provide insurance or reinsurance broking, risk consulting, claims or other services or provide any benefit to the extent that the provision of such services or benefit would violate applicable law or expose Marsh McLennan Agency to any sanction, prohibition or restriction under UN Security Council Resolutions or under other trade or economic sanctions, laws or regulations.

Compensation Disclosure and Limitation of Liability

Marsh & McLennan Agency LLC ("MMA") prides itself on being an industry leader in the area of transparency and compensation disclosure. We believe you should understand how we are paid for the services we are providing to you. We are committed to compensation transparency and to disclosing to you information that will assist you in evaluating potential conflicts of interest.

As a professional insurance producer, MMA and its subsidiaries facilitate the placement of insurance coverage on behalf of our clients. As an independent insurance agent, MMA may have authority to obligate an insurance company on behalf of our clients and as a result, we may be required to act within the scope of the authority granted to us under our contract with the insurer. In accordance with industry custom, we are compensated either through commissions that are calculated as a percentage of the insurance premiums charged by insurers, or fees agreed to with our clients.

MMA engages with clients on behalf of itself and in some cases as agent on behalf of its non-US affiliates with respect to the services we may provide. For a list of our non-US affiliates, please visit:

Leading the Way in Transparency | Marsh. In those instances, MMA will bill and collect on behalf of the non-US Affiliates amounts payable to them for placements made by them on your behalf and remit to them any such amounts collected on their behalf.

MMA receives compensation through one or a combination of the following methods:

Retail Commissions – A retail commission is paid to MMA by the insurer (or wholesale broker) as a percentage of the premium charged to the insured for the policy. The amount of commission may vary depending on several factors, including the type of insurance product sold and the insurer selected by the client. If MMA places business through an affiliated wholesale broker or managing general agent, MMA will advise the client of this at or prior to placement.

- Client Fees – Some clients may negotiate a fee for MMA's services in lieu of, or in addition to, retail commissions paid by insurance companies. Fee agreements are in writing, typically pursuant to a Client Service Agreement, which sets forth the services to be provided by MMA, the compensation to be paid to MMA, and the terms of MMA's engagement. The fee may be collected in whole, or in part, through the crediting of retail commissions collected by MMA for the client's placements.
- Contingent Commissions – Many insurers agree to pay contingent commissions to insurance producers who meet set goals for all or some of the policies the insurance producers place with the insurer during the current year. The set goals may include volume, profitability, retention and/or growth thresholds. Because the amount of contingent commission earned may vary depending on factors relating to an entire book of business over the course of a year, the amount of contingent commission attributable to any given policy typically will not be known at the time of placement.
- Supplemental Commissions – Certain insurers and wholesalers agree to pay supplemental commissions, which are based on an insurance producer's performance during the prior year. Supplemental commissions are paid as a percentage of premium that is set at the beginning of the calendar year. This percentage remains fixed for all eligible policies written by the insurer during the ensuing year. Unlike contingent commissions, the amount of supplemental commission is known at the time of insurance placement. Like contingent commissions, they may be based on volume, profitability, retention and/or growth.
- Wholesale Broking Commissions – Sometimes MMA acts as a wholesale insurance broker for some transactions (which may include MMA's retail broking operations). In these placements, MMA is engaged by a retail broker that has the direct relationship with the insured. MMA may have specialized expertise, access to surplus lines markets, or access to specialized insurance facilities that the retail broker does not have. In these transactions, the insurer typically pays a commission that is divided between the retail and wholesale broker pursuant to arrangements made between them.
- In addition, some MMA affiliates act as managing general agents, in which capacity they work solely on behalf of insurers to bind coverage, service policies and, in some cases, settle claims. Our affiliated wholesale brokers are also able to access excess and surplus lines insurers that do not work with retail agents and brokers. Like other MGA's and wholesalers, our affiliates may also be compensated by commissions received from insurers. These commissions are separate and apart from any commissions received by MMA. When MMA places business through affiliated wholesalers, the insurer pays a commission that may be divided between our affiliated wholesaler and MMA. Compensation earned by wholesalers may be shared with MMA as described in the Contingent and Supplemental Commissions sections above.

- Medallion Program and Sponsorships – Pursuant to MMA's Medallion Program, participating carriers sponsor educational programs, MMA events and other initiatives. Depending on their sponsorship levels, participating carriers are invited to attend meetings and events with MMA executives, have the opportunity to provide education and training to MMA colleagues and receive data reports from MMA. Insurers may also sponsor other national and regional programs and events.
- Other Compensation & Sponsorships – From time to time, MMA may be compensated by insurers for providing administrative services on behalf of those insurers. Such amounts are typically calculated as a percentage of premium or are based on the number of insureds. Additionally, insurers may sponsor MMA training programs and events. MMA may also have arrangements with vendors who compensate MMA for referring clients for vendor services.

We will be pleased to provide you additional information about our compensation and information about alternative quotes upon your request. For more detailed information about the forms of compensation we receive please refer to our Marsh & McLennan Agency Compensation Guide at:
<https://www.marshmma.com/us/compensation-guide.html>.

Unless otherwise provided for in our agreement with you, MMA's aggregate liability arising out of or relating to any services on your account shall not exceed ten million dollars ($10,000,000), and in no event shall we be liable for any indirect, special, incidental, consequential or punitive damages or for any lost profits or other economic loss arising out of or relating to such services. In addition, you agree to waive your right to a jury trial in any action or legal proceeding arising out of or relating to such services. The foregoing limitation of liability and jury waiver shall apply to the fullest extent permitted by law.

Marsh McLennan Agency's Role If Your Insurer Cancels Your Policy

Florida statute limits an insurer's right to cancel a policy and requires the insurer to provide notice to you when a policy is cancelled. We, as your agent, do not have authority to determine whether a policy will be cancelled, or reinstated if cancelled, and must rely solely on the insurer to make us aware of a policy cancellation.

Recognizing the agent's lack of authority to cancel or reinstate a policy and inability to control the flow of information related to policy cancellation, Florida Statute does not require an agent to provide any notice of policy cancellation to a client. If we become aware of a policy cancellation and contact you about the cancellation, or attempt to persuade your insurer to reconsider the cancellation, you expressly acknowledge that:

1. We are not obligated to provide notice of cancellation to you or attempt to reinstate a cancelled policy;
2. You will pay policy premiums as required. There is no grace period; the insurer must receive the premium payment before the "due date";
3. You are not relying on us to notify you of policy cancellation or attempt to set a cancellation aside;
4. Each and every policy cancellation is an independent event. Our involvement in any isolated cancellation does not create a duty to act in any other case;
5. To the extent that our voluntary involvement may create legal rights against us, you knowingly and voluntarily waive any such right in consideration of our efforts.

Schedule of Named Insureds

Please verify that this is accurate as proposed, and that all owned subsidiaries, partnerships, trade names, etc. are listed. This is a vitally important part of your insurance program and must be completely accurate to ensure proper coverage in the event of loss.

Flood coverage and/or deductibles will be determined based on the flood zone at the time of loss.

The Federal Emergency Management Agency (FEMA) determines the zones for rating flood insurance. Zone designations may change due to re-mapping by FEMA for various reasons including changes in water flow and drainage patterns that have changed over time due to surface erosion, land use and natural forces.

If your property is located in “Zone X” as determined by the National Flood Program (NFIP) your lender may not require flood coverage. Please keep in mind the National Flood Program (NFIP) states 30% of all flood losses occur in Non Special Flood Hazard Areas. Just because your property is located in a Non Special Flood Hazard Area does NOT mean you will never suffer a flood loss.

Marsh McLennan Agency recommends that the collision damage waiver (CDW) and the loss damage waiver (LDW) always be purchased for short-term rentals. These waivers may protect you against thousands of dollars in charges not covered by your auto policy. Since your auto policy will likely cover things the rental agreement waiver won't, having both is advisable.

Recommendations

We include the following recommendations as examples to enhance coverage presented in the attached proposal in an effort to minimize your firm's exposure to financial loss. Such exposures include decreasing the wind deductible; purchasing excess flood coverage to the actual value of property, over the maximum limit provided by the National Flood Insurance Program; ensuring exposures and limits are accurate and adequate. While you cannot identify every situation that may represent a potential claim, we strongly recommend that you consider your firm's exposure to any potentially uncovered events.

Please take the time to review the following recommendations and discuss each with your Agent. Please indicate which additional coverage(s) you are interested in having Marsh McLennan Agency secure for you.

Miscellaneous Liability

- Pollution, including Mold
- Kidnap and Ransom
- Non-Certified Acts of Terrorism
- Billing Errors & Omissions

Pollution Coverage

Marsh McLennan Agency recommends you consider the addition of a separate pollution liability policy to protect your firm from unforeseen or unknown circumstances. The addition of such coverage will not only assist in protecting your interests, but with the right coverage it can provide additional assistance in case a claim arises. While pollution claims do not occur regularly, they can have severe consequences.

Typical Exposures include:

- Leakage from above ground storage tanks
- Inadequate testing of below grade tanks
- Discovery of previously buried fuel or septic tanks, drums or other waste at your facility
- Improper handling of material containers by employees
- Radioactive material contaminants exposure
- Exposed asbestos or lead paint
- Contamination of ground water supply or sewer systems from spills or improperly disposed of products
- Fungus or mold creating a bacterial or infectious air release from air handling units including outside contaminants entering the air system
- Medical Waste Products

Typical costs associated with such claims:

- Containment
- Evacuation
- Business interruption
- Clean-up
- Third party bodily injury or property damage claims and the defense of these claims
- Other legal costs
- Loss of earnings due to damage to reputation
- Civil fines imposed

Pollution exposures vary widely based on use and occupancy of your facilities or specific operations performed by your firm. This list is meant to give you some samples of the types of exposures and costs associated with pollution liability claims.

Active Assailant Coverage

Active assailant coverage helps victims of active shooter events and other threats of terrorism. This coverage complements general liability and property coverage by providing a combination of casualty and additional property coverage.

Also known as active shooter coverage or deadly weapons coverage, active assailant coverage is a type of affirmative coverage that is triggered by premeditated physical attacks from armed, active, and physically present assailants. Many commercial insurers offer this type of coverage, providing policies specifically designed to help organizations mitigate risks, respond to active assailant threats, and recover from these attacks.

Active Assailant Coverage Highlights

- Property damage, business interruption, and extra expense coverage
- Legal liability coverage
- Non-physical damage coverage
- Loss of attraction and denial of access coverage
- Reimbursement for costs for public relations consulting, crisis management, medical services, counseling and/or psychiatric care, hiring of additional staff, and added security
- Limits of up to $100 million
- No exclusions for vehicles, attacks by employees, and terrorism

Preparation and Response Planning

It is important that organizations consider active assailant coverage to help prevent loss of life, injuries, and property damage. Many policies include access to additional active assailant products, like advisory services, to bolster risk mitigation efforts.

A.M. Best Rating Summary

Marsh McLennan Agency has minimum financial guidelines for the insurers we work with to place coverage. Those guidelines require both an A.M. Best rating of A- or better and unencumbered surplus of $100 million or more. Should you direct us to place your business with a market that does not meet those standards, your MMA client service team will notify you.

Note: Insurance Carrier ratings listed in this proposal were obtained from A.M. Best & Co. Marsh McLennan Agency makes no warranty, nor representation, as to the financial solvency or claims paying ability of any insurer. This summary is provided for informational purposes only in an effort to summarize rating definitions.

Financial Strength Rating

Secure Ratings
Superior	A++, A+
Excellent	A, A-
Very Good	B++, B+

Vulnerable Ratings
Fair	B, B-	Poor	D
Marginal	C++, C+	Under State Supervision	E
Weak	C, C-	In Liquidation	F

Insurance Carriers that are listed as Not Rated (NR) may not be reviewed by A.M. Best or comparable rating bureaus to determine their financial stability. Admitted Insurers and Workers' Compensation Insurers for policies issued for a Florida based risk are subject to specific State Insurance Funds. These Funds were established to assist with claim payments in the event an insurer is deemed insolvent by the Florida Department of Financial Services. Limits provided may not cover all costs associated with a claim or demand for payment.

Acknowledgements & Disclosures

Claims-Made Notification

This brief explanation is provided to assist you in complying with the claim reporting requirements imposed by your insurance policy. However, it is not a substitute for review of your policy. The actual policy wording will dictate your duty to report a claim and must therefore be reviewed to avoid any misunderstanding or loss of coverage for failure to report a claim as required.

Interpretation of contracts, including insurance policies, is a question of law. We, as insurance agents, can offer an interpretation of policy language as we understand it but cannot provide legal advice. Questions about the legal effect of any policy terms or conditions should be referred to your attorney.

The policy/coverage referenced in this proposal contains Claims-Made reporting Requirements as follows:

- Claims-Made (Retro Date): A version of a claims-made policy where coverage applies when the occurrence/event occurred after the retroactive date and the claim/lawsuit is first made against the insured during the policy period and reported to the insurer during the policy period (or any applicable extended reporting period).

Minimum Earned Premium Acknowledgement

Client understands that once coverage is bound, the Minimum Earned Premium plus applicable policy fees and taxes are immediately earned, fully accrued, due, and owing regardless of subsequent cancellation. In other words, even if the coverage is in force for only one day, the Insurance Carrier will be owed the entire Minimum Earned Premium and related fees and taxes will apply.

Marsh McLennan Agency will invoice you for the Deposit Premium following your request to bind coverage. You agree to submit said amount to us at time of binding. We shall be entitled to recover all costs of collection, including reasonable attorney's fees, in the event payment on this or any other amount owed is not paid when due.

Reg. 194 Mandatory Initial Disclosure

As required by the New York State Insurance Department

As an independent insurance agent or insurance broker I, or my firm, (hereafter "I") may have access to more than one insurance company to place your coverage. Whether acting as an independent insurance agent or insurance broker I have certain obligations to you as the purchaser and certain obligations to the insurance company as determined in both statutory and case law. If acting as an independent insurance agent I may have authority to obligate the insurance company on your behalf and as a result, I may be required to act within the scope of my contractual agreement with the company.

As the purchaser you need to understand that I typically will receive compensation from the selling company based on the agreement I have with the company. That compensation may vary from company to company and also be impacted by the volume of business I place with the company, the profitability of that business and other factors.

You may receive information about my compensation on the policy or policies you select and about any policies I have presented to you which you did not select by asking me for the information.

Surplus Lines Disclosure and Acknowledgement

At my direction, Marsh & McLennan Agency LLC has placed my coverage in the surplus lines market.

As required by Florida Statute 626.916, I have agreed to this placement. I understand that coverage may be available in the admitted market and that persons insured by surplus lines carriers are not protected by the Florida Insurance Guaranty Act with respect to any right of recovery for the obligation of an insolvent unlicensed insurer. Additionally, I understand surplus lines insurers' policy rates and forms are not approved by any Florida regulatory agency.

I further understand the policy forms, conditions, premiums, and deductibles used by surplus lines insurers may be different from those found in policies used in the admitted market. I have been advised to carefully read the entire policy.
